

510 ARCHITECTS JOINS CHAMPLIN | EOP RICHMOND, VA — 6/4/26

510 Architects announced today that they will be joining Champlin | EOP, complementing Champlin | EOP's growing presence in Virginia and expanding their ability to serve clients throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.

Founded in Richmond, Virginia, 510 Architects has earned a reputation for thoughtful, client-focused design and meaningful relationships throughout the community. By joining Champlin | EOP, the 510 team will gain access to expanded resources, multidisciplinary expertise, and broader market opportunities while continuing to serve clients from its Richmond office.

"This is first and foremost about people, culture, and shared values," said Jason East, CEO of Champlin | EOP. "The 510 team has built an outstanding reputation in Richmond through great design and strong client relationships. We are excited to welcome them to Champlin | EOP and continue building on their strong legacy while shaping the future together."

Heather Grutzius and John White, Co-Founders of 510 Architects, said in a joint statement that the decision was guided by a shared commitment to creating long-term opportunities for both employees and clients. "We found strong alignment in how both firms approach design, collaboration, and client service. Joining Champlin | EOP allows us to expand opportunities for our team while continuing to deliver the personalized service and design excellence our clients expect."

The combination expands Champlin | EOP's capabilities across multiple practice areas and enhances the firm's ability to provide architecture, interior design, planning, historic preservation, and related services throughout Virginia and beyond.

The Richmond office will continue operating with its existing team and client relationships while gaining access to the broader expertise and resources of the larger organization.

"This is about a continued investment in the broader mid-Atlantic region, including our previously established Norfolk Office," added Champlin | EOP Principal and Board Member, Krutarth Jain. "Together, we are excited about what we can accomplish."
